

Any revision to Indiana Atty General Steve Carter's telephone privacy law would be an unwelcome and unappreciated invasion of my individual rights as a homeowner.